CARD OF THANKS

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of thanking our many friends and relatives for the food, flowers, cards and other acts of kindness shown us during our recent bereavement of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Annie Babcock. You will always be remembered.

Daughters: Mrs. N. E. Wooldridge, Miss Mary Bell Babcock, and Grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to the Appomattox Firemen, each and everyone, who assisted in anyway when our tenant house burned last Sunday. Special thanks to Dr. O'Brien, who discovered the fire. Our thanks to everyone.

ASC ELECTIONS
According to Mr. C. [illegible], chairman, of the Appomattox County Committee, preparations are underway for holding the annual ASC Committee election in October. As in the past, the community committees will be elected for each community in the county. For the purpose of electing community committeemen, the county will be divided into three districts, as follows: Clover Hill and Stonewall. For the district there will be a regular committee chairman, regular committeemen and alternates. The duties of the three community committeemen will also serve as delegates to the county convention held at the courthouse on October 24, at which time the County Committee will elect three regular committeemen and alternates, who will be elected.

Petitions signed by 10 or more eligible voters favoring nomination of additional persons will be received by the community election boards at any time through September 14, and names of persons so petitioned for will be included in the slate of nominees if found willing to serve and eligible under the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Signed petitions may be sent to Mr. Ronald Paulette, Rt. 1, Appomattox, Va., Clover Hill Community; Mr. W. E. Bondurant, Jr., Concord, Va., Stonewall Community; and Mr. Frank Nash, Spout Spring, Va., Southside Community.

Voting for community committeemen in Appomattox County will be by mail. Ballots will be distributed to farmers by the ASC Office around September 26. To be counted, ballots must be returned to the ASC Office postmarked not later than October 11.

In each community, the person receiving the largest number of votes becomes chairman of the Community Committee. He also will act as delegate to the county convention to be held October 24, for the purpose of electing a County Committee.

Rental System On Textbooks In Co. Schools

This fall the Appomattox County Schools will use for the first time the textbook rental system adopted by the School Board.

Those pupils who voted not to enter the Rental System may still do so by turning in their books at the beginning of school.

Those students desiring to buy their books may purchase them second-hand from other individuals or purchase them from the County Bookroom located in the Dormitory Building at Appomattox High School. Only new books will be on sale at the County Bookroom.

The County Bookroom will be open for the purchase of new books by pupils or their parents the following hours:

September 1st, 2nd and 3rd,
9:30 - 12:30 — 2:30 - 5:00
Tuesday through Friday, Sept. 6th, 7:30—3:00 - 5:00.
Tuesday and Thursday, Sept. 20 —October 9, 3:00 to 5:00.
Tuesday only after October 9th
3:00 - 5:00.

Parents and pupils are advised to consult the 1960 book list given to each pupil at the beginning of the school year before purchasing books. Please bring this book list with you if you wish to purchase books at the Bookroom.

To Vote On Amendments

When they go to the polls to vote for President on Nov. 8, Virginians also will vote on two sets of state constitutional amendments.

The amendments will be carried on separate ballots from the Presidential ballot.

The first proposed amendment will enable two or more counties or counties and cities jointly to elect certain local government officials.

The second proposed amendment concerns the privilege of Virginians on active military duty in peacetime to vote without the payment of poll taxes.

No opposition has been voiced to either proposed amendment.

Town Park Report Shows Fiscal Record

Great improvements have been made this season at the Appomattox Town Ball Park. A report made to the Town showed that well over $2,000 has been spent in improvements at the park. However, the report also reveals unpaid bills of around $600, leaving a total improvement figure standing at $2,701.98.

Biggest item of expense was a new wire fence around the park, located just east of town.

The fence cost $672.85.

The report to the Town included an itemized statement of all expenditures.

The report showed some cash on hand, and ended with the statement by the lessees of the Park, that there had been an operating loss for 1960 of $347.72.

The Town Park has been used this season for the Appomattox Horse Show, for softball games, and a few baseball games.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT GLENN MEMORIAL

Revival services, with the Rev. James T. Cravens as the visiting preacher, begin at the Glenn Memorial Baptist Church, at Prospect this Sunday evening, August 28, at eight o'clock, according to an announcement by the Rev. John Leslie Hart, pastor of the church. The services will run through Friday evening at the same hour.

Mr. Cravens came to the Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox after several other successful pastorates in the state. Since coming to the Appomattox Association, he has become one of its strong leaders and is in considerable demand as a speaker and conference leader.
